

Balancing Truth & Grace Conference A Christian Response To Homosexuality

October 14 - 16, 2009

Nearly every family, church and community has been impacted by homosexuality. If you are the parent, friend or loved one of someone living homosexually, a pastor, lay counselor or youth minister; a therapist or educator; or even someone advocating for pro-gay initiatives, you'll want to attend this conference. You'll hear from nationally known Christian experts who have firsthand experience with the seldom-told side of the homosexual issue. You'll be equipped to minister in truth and compassion to someone who deals with same-sex attractions, respond to misinformation in our culture and defend biblical beliefs with grace and understanding. But mostly, you'll be encouraged by the power of God's love and His desire to transform lives.

Featured Speakers:

Melissa Fryrear, M.Div., currently directs the Gender Issues Department for Focus on the Family. She holds a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary and is actively involved in public speaking, writing and educating the church and society on homosexuality.

Jeff Johnston, Analyst in the Gender Issues Department for Focus on the Family. Jeff served as the Executive Director of Regeneration, an Exodus member ministry in Baltimore and as the Director of Alternatives, a San Diego-based ministry dedicated to helping men and women overcome same-sex attractions.
